PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 30, 1858.

CAMPAIGN PROSPECTUS

OF THE

WEEKLY PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

There will be an animated and exciting political campaign in Illinois between the 1st of August and 5th of November. Upon the result of that election will depend a Legislature, nine Members of Congress, a United States Senator, and two State officers, besides the local officers in one hundred counties. Shall Republican or Pro-Slavery principles triumph in Illinois? Shall this great State be represented in the councils of the nation, on the side of Freedom or on the side of Slavery? Shall we have the noble and true Lincoln as the associate of the gallant and faithful Trumbull in behalf of free territories, free speech and free men; or, shall it be Douglas, with his Dred Scott, his odious Cincinnati Platform and his "don't care whether slavery is voted up or voted down," in the free territories of the West? Fellow citizens of the Prairie State, on you the decision of these important questions devolves. Choose ye which you will have. Believing that an earnest and candid discussion of these momentous issues through the public prints will do good — and believing that the Free-Soil side has every thing to gain, and nothing to lose, by the most thorough and searching examination of these questions — therefore, we, have have resolved to publish a Campaign Paper, from now until the election, on the first Tuesday of November next. And for the purpose of giving it the widest possible circulation, will dispose of it at our price; and hope that our friends will take immediate steps to order clubs of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE for their respective precincts. We are confident that a general circulation of this paper will accomplish great good for the cause we all have at heart.

The Election To-Day.

There is to be an election to-day in the Second Ward for Alderman. It is essential that the Republicans of the Second Ward cast their ballots for the regular nominee, JOHN CALHOUN. A scheme is on foot, we understand, to spring a trap and run in a Dred-Scottite, and afterwards claim it as a great Douglas victory. Be on your guard! Let us not jeopardize a member of the City Legislature on account of apathy or any local dispute. Let us first elect our Republican candidate, and then settle the local questions. Mr. Calhoun is one of the oldest and best citizens in the Ward. He has resided in it for a quarter of a century. He is a man of sound judgment and honest purposes, and will make an useful and popular City Father. See that he is elected.

Bob Acres Loose.

If the Republican "champion" does not effect a timely retreat, there will be music at the time and place designated in Senator Douglas' reply to Mr. Lincoln. Hear what he said yesterday morning:

MERCIAL.

Commercial and Money Matters.

TUESDAY EVENING, July 28, 1858.

MONEY, ETC.—Exchange is still down as 1/4 per cent. premium. Collections tolerably easy, and Currency abundant. Gold in active demand at 1 1/4@1 per cent.

COMMERCIAL.—The firm feeling in the Breadstuffs markets noted yesterday has continued to-day. There opened at 66c in store for No. 2, but advanced in Change to 68c, and in the afternoon to 67@67 1/2c. Prime Canal Wheat sold at 70c afloat; Rejected at 58c in store; No. 1 Red Winter, 65c in store. The sales of the day amount to only about 30,000 bushels—there being very little offered for sale at the market. Corn was in very active request, and buyers had to advance 1@2c to meet the views of sellers. 60,000 bu were sold at 57c afloat and f. o. b. for Canal; 59 1/2@54c in store for No. 1; 47 1/2@49c in store for No. 2; and 44c in store for Rejected. Oats were in good demand at 37@38 1/2c in store—closing firm. The floor market was quiet but firm, with sales of about 700 bbls Spring Extra at $5 60. Hightwines are firm. Wool—very little arriving, with a good inquiry. Hides steady.

The demand for vessels is still light, and freights are dull. Vessels were chartered to take corn to Buffalo at 5c.

THE CROPS.

AUBURN, Fountain Co., Ind., July 26.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Since writing you before, I have made two trips through this county, and must say that our prospects will make a few brief remarks. The wheat crop in the north part of the county is rather light, some fields will not pay for the cutting, though others will be heavy. The rust took the late sown and the blight has injured the early. Farther south, in what is called the barrens, I find most of the crop fine for late, say an average crop. In this county (Fountain) we cannot call it an average yield for similar reasons.

Oats—The crop has made, for the first time in many years, a good fallow. The seed sown will not be got back this year in these two counties I think. The farmers in this section do not appreciate a tall rye, therefore their oats are mostly late sown and liable to rust or blight.

Our corn is coming on finely, though the yield can not depend entirely on the season. Some of our farmers are complaining, and justly too. I think, about the seed (King Philip) sent here for sale. Much of it was sold for $4 50 per bushel, and not more than one fourth of it made a start at germination, thereby taking the last chance out of their hands to use some of our far-famed bottom lands this summer. We find some fields out of use on the Grand Prairie; this is a new thing in this quarter. Grass looks fine, but little cut yet; we saw one field of one hundred and fifty acres, and another of one hundred and sixty-three, in Warren county, last week, every acre of which will yield at least two tons. The potato crop will, I think, be light, the late dry weather causing them to ripen prematurely in many cases; yet we saw one field of one hundred and fifty acres, and another of one hundred and thirty
